Legislator Anker Recognizes Miller Place Firefighters

Legislator Sarah Anker, Supervisor Ed Romaine, and Chief of Department Josh Hagermann with the Miller Place volunteer firefighters who have also served in the United State Military.

ROCKY POINT, NY – On Saturday, April 2nd, Suffolk County Legislator Sarah Anker joined the Miller Place Fire District at their Annual Installation Dinner at Majestic Gardens in Rocky Point. Legislator Anker presented recognitions awards to members of the department for their service. Alfred Kopcienski and Jack Katrina received recognition for 45 years of service, Carol Hawat was named EMT of the year, and Jeff Kinkaid was named Firefighter of the year.

“The Miller Place Fire Department deserves nothing but our utmost gratitude,” said Legislator Anker. “They’re service is vital to keeping our community safe. I am proud to honor these local heroes.”

Legislator Anker also had the opportunity to recognize those who are both volunteer firefighters and veterans. Through Suffolk County’s veteran recognition program, Legislator Anker awarded pins to the following veterans: John Hagermann, Don Nimphius, Michele Devaux, Robert Foley, Alvin Johnson, Scott Walsh, Chris Lall, Mike Higley, Joe McCrain Jr., John Quinn, Guy Schneider, Jack Katrina, and Thomas Crosby
